A networking event like nothing seen before. An educational playground for logistics professionals to remove the suit and tie and go on a journey of discovery with other like minded industry leaders. Cargo Weekend is a feast for the senses, showcasing top brands, workshops, interactive experiences, music, art, and lifestyle. Under the umbrella of the organising X2 Group, Cargo Weekenders are promised something that they have never experienced, taking them out of their comfort zones, with a clear directive of enabling them in business in a totally new way.

TALKS

Participate in talks covering a range of industry topics as well as personal and professional development. Striving to be a better person goes hand in hand with being a better professional.

LEISURE

Between attending Talks and Meetings enjoy food and beverages for a variety of tastes and take in the atmosphere and music for an entertaining yet business oriented weekend.

MEETINGS

Participate in meetings with fellow logistics industry professionals. You will be able to meet individuals from leading global companies who are logistics industry suppliers and also potential customers.
